MARIA, FOOD BANK CLIENT, SHARES HER STORY

I am a Navy veteran. I was honorably discharged after serving my country for four years on several detachments and deployments. I loved my time in the Navy. Sure, it was hard work but I got to see the world and I was always taken care of. It wasn't until after I got out that my struggles really began.

couldn't make it on my own. My daughters were the only reason I ended up asking for assistance. Their needs motivated me to put my pride aside and visit a nearby food pantry – served by the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana. By giving us food, the pantry restored a sense of normalcy to our lives and gave us the strength and inspiration we needed to keep reaching for a better day.

I now know that a better day will be here soon. When Hailey is old enough to attend full-time kindergarten, I can work enough hours to make ends meet. I'm not sure I'd be as hopeful about the future without the Food Bank's support. To me, the people there are angels, and I can't thank them enough for everything they've done.

I'm a single mom to two beautiful girls – Hailey is four and Hannah is six. My husband and I split up a few years ago and unfortunately I don't receive any support. I want to work hard and earn a living, but right now my daughters' school schedule doesn't allow it. Hailey is too young to attend school all day, and I can't afford the daycare I'd need to work full time. I do everything I can to make the most of the few hours she is in school – I clean homes, landscape lawns; anything to make a little money to keep the shelves stocked. But as you can imagine, it's not enough. There have been times when I didn't eat so my daughters could.

As a veteran, it's really tough to ask for help. The Navy taught me to be independent. I was ashamed to admit that I

Letter

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Martha Marak

I can't say it enough — THANK YOU! I've always believed that there is a tremendous amount of compassion and philanthropy in Northwest Louisiana, and the generosity during the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey has proven this several times over.

Together, we hit the ground running by providing over $275,000 in food, water, household items, cleaning supplies and pet food to our struggling neighbors in Southeast Texas. And we continue our work in Northwest Louisiana to help the 35,000 individuals that turn to the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana each month.

Because friends like you care about the well-being of our community and the victims of nature's disasters, the Food Bank is on task to distribute nearly 1,000,000 pounds of food, enough food for 765,000 meals each month.

Thank you for your generous the support of our community. Together we have continued to provide food to 150 non-profit organizations, homeless shelters, soup kitchens, church pantries, and schools. With even more people in our community needing our assistance, we hope we can count on your continued support.

With gratitude,

Martha Marak

THANK YOU!

Danella Ware, Specialist Health System Marketing Director presents $5,000 for disaster assistance to the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana.

HIGHEST RATING FROM CHARITY NAVIGATOR AND GUIDE STAR ACHIEVED FOR ANOTHER YEAR

Once again, the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana's sound fiscal management practices, financial health, accountability and transparency have earned the highest rating from two leading charity evaluators—Guide Star and Charity Navigator. In recent publicized reports, the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana earned the highest 4 Star Rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator. Only 16 rated charities in the state of Louisiana received the 4 Star Rating. The Food Bank is the only non-profit organization in Northwest Louisiana to achieve this award. This is the fourth year in a row that the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana has earned this top four star distinction.

Similarly, the Food Bank earned the highest rating of Platinum Level from Guide Star, world's largest source of information on non-profit organizations. The Food Bank is one of only nine organizations in the State to have the rating of Platinum level.

“It's important our donors trust that we are using our funding wisely to accomplish the over-whelming task of trying to stabilize the lives of those facing hunger issues in northwest Louisiana,” said Martha Marak, Executive Director. “Our 4-star Charity Navigator rating demonstrates to our supporters that we take our fiduciary responsibilities very seriously.”

DISASTER SERVICES

After Hurricane Harvey made landfall and dropped more than 40 inches of rain, thousands of people in southeast Texas and Houston have been displaced.

One of the many services the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana provides is disaster aid during difficult times. Disaster response has been a core part of our mission for 20 years. The Food Bank has a history of supporting sister food banks many times in the past following disasters.

Whether a local flood, or when the rains flooded Baton Rouge in 2016, the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana responded with food and household items.

Responding to the disaster of Hurricane Harvey was no different. Thanks to our local partners, Brookshire's, Super 1, Bossier Sheriff's Office, Ivan Smith Furniture, First Baptist Church School, Horseshoe Casino, Minden Chamber of Commerce, Specialist Health System and, Saia Transportation, we have already sent three 53' trucks filled with 66 pallets of water, 22 pallets of Meals Ready to Eat (MRE) and assorted foods, cleaning supplies, blankets and pet food valued at $208,800 to the Southeast Texas Food Bank in Beaumont.

PLAN YOUR OWN BOWL PAINTING PARTY

Host a bowl painting event to benefit the Food Bank's Empty Bowl Event. Bowls are only $20.00 each. Bowls, glazes, and supplies will be provided for your event. Contact Meg at 318.675.2400 ext. 111 or development@food-banknla.org to arrange your event at your location.

Our goal is to have 400 hand painted ceramic bowls completed for our Empty Bowls Hunger Awareness and fund raising event in June 2018. Guests at the Empty Bowls event choose a bowl as their “Thank You” and as a reminder of the empty bowls that need to be filled in our community.
