No Contribution Too Small

Dear <Donor Name>,

Spring is a time of renewal and fresh possibilities. Even the simplest act of kindness can bring warmth and hope to someone's day.

If you've ever wondered whether one small act can truly make a difference, I'd like to share a simple truth.

It can.

Every day, our neighbors across Caddo, Bossier, Webster, Claiborne, Bienville, Red River and DeSoto Parishes face impossible choices—pay the electric bill or buy groceries… fill a prescription or put food on the table. For many seniors and children, those choices are becoming more common.

But something remarkable happens when neighbors decide to help neighbors.

A small gift becomes food for a meal.
An hour of time becomes hope.
One simple act becomes part of something much bigger.

Because of caring people like you, the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana provides food for more than 10 million meals each year to our neighbors facing hunger across northwest Louisiana. Every one of those meals starts with someone deciding to help.

The wonderful thing is this: there is truly no contribution too small. You can help in the way that fits you best. A gift of support helps provide the food our neighbors urgently need—our greatest need. Financial donations allow us to purchase nutritious food in bulk and stretch every dollar to reach more families.

You can also volunteer and see the impact firsthand. Volunteers help:

Pack Senior Boxes for older adults

Shop with a Neighbor or re-stock the shelves at Martha's Market

Pick up weekly food donations from local partners

These simple acts of kindness add up to something extraordinary.

But right now, the need continues to grow. More seniors are asking for help. More parents are struggling to keep food on the table. More children depend on the meals provided through the Food Bank's programs. That's why your support today matters so much.

Your gift today will help ensure that seniors receive their monthly food boxes, children have meals on weekends, and families facing hard times can still sit down to dinner together.

Please consider making a gift today using the enclosed reply card and envelope. Because when caring neighbors come together—even through the smallest act—we can accomplish something powerful:

No one in our community has to face hunger alone.

With gratitude,

Martha Marak
