GATHER. NOURISH. GIVE.

Dear Friend,

What is your favorite Thanksgiving Day tradition?

For some it might be the carving of the turkey, for others the football game. Every household looks different on Thanksgiving Day. Our traditions help us stay focused on what matters: being thankful for the people we share a meal with around the table.

My favorite Thanksgiving tradition is the beginning of the meal - finding your seat at the table. With all of the anticipation, great smelling food and desserts ahead, what could be better? When everyone sits down at the table surrounded by a meal, food becomes an equalizer. No matter our differences, we are all hungry for nourishment. We know when we leave the table, we will be nourished not only in our bellies, but also in our hearts.

Every $25 donation gives $250 towards a Thanksgiving meal.

This Thanksgiving, the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana seeks to nourish those in our community facing food insecurity. Our partner agencies will be working with full hearts to make sure all who walk through their doors will be fed. We expect to distribute 1 million pounds of food this November to food pantries, soup kitchens, shelters, and churches who are supporting individuals in Bienville, Bossier, Caddo, Claiborne, Desoto, Red River, and Webster Parish. This distributed food will nourish thousands of families this Thanksgiving.

Where is your seat at the table this Thanksgiving?

Will you donate?
Every $10 you donate gives $100 worth of food to those facing food insecurity.

Will you volunteer?
Find a food pantry near you to help or email volunteer@foodbanknla.org.

Will you share?
Engage in our social media. Spreading the word always matters!

Your gift today will help ensure that our neighbors in our seven parish area will have something to eat on Thanksgiving day.

Thank you for your generous support to help us fight hunger this holiday season.
