Levi Walker’s Story

Levi Walker found himself unable to work because car accidents left him disabled. He struggled to keep food on the table. He and his roommates, Stephanie and Kage were hungry. Levi could not settle for their situation, so he searched for a food pantry.

One day, he visited the Pantry on Texas, run by the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana. At the food pantry he received a variety of foods like fruit, vegetables, meat and bread. It was enough food that he could make it through the month. “It’s very comforting to know that you have a place to go,” Levi said.

Levi and his roommates started taking the bus to the pantry every month. They feel welcomed and comfortable at the Pantry on Texas. “This helps us get back on our feet and stay on our feet,” he said. He began encouraging others that were food insecure to go to the pantry. The Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana gives help and hope to neighbors like Levi and thousands of others each month.

Ribbon Cutting and 25th Anniversary Celebration

On Thursday, April 28, Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana held its ribbon cutting for the new facility and 25th Anniversary of serving as the primary resource for fighting hunger in Northwest Louisiana!

The ribbon-cutting was held in the new warehouse followed by private tours of our facility. The staff and Board of Directors were greeters and directed tours to learn more about how the Food Bank of Northwest Louisiana serves our food-insecure neighbors.
Dear Friends of the Food Bank,

It’s inescapable. Everywhere you look, you read or hear about the state of the economy, rising food and fuel prices. Everyone is affected by today’s economic forces. Although I feel a pinch in my wallet, I imagine the strain on our low income neighbors and their families. Fuel prices are higher than they’ve ever been and food inflation is at an all-time high. Many people’s incomes cannot match the rising costs. For the families served by the Food Bank of NWLA, there’s no place left to cut. More people are being forced to seek food assistance.

I think about those working poor – they may be working at two different jobs earning minimum wage or they might be single moms with children. I think about those children who need nutritious food. I think about the seniors who are living on fixed incomes and often find themselves choosing between basic food needs or prescription medicine. I know we can make a difference to these neighbors and we do, with your help.

We are blessed with compassionate donors in our community and we can get through these tough times together. Thank you for your support in the past and if you can, please continue to support us. You are the lifeblood of this organization – as donors, as volunteers, as advocates.

With gratitude,

Martha Marak
The Louisiana Army National Guard is leaving our food bank family after two years. They worked side by side with our employees, clients, and volunteers day in and day out through the pandemic, Hurricane Ida, snowstorms, and other challenging times.

In 2020, Governor John Bel Edwards declared a state of emergency in the state of Louisiana and formed the COVID Task Force of the Louisiana Army National Guard. Guardsmen were sent across Louisiana to handle vaccines, help food banks, and compensate for the worker shortage. As of March 29th, all guardsmen were released from their Louisiana food bank duties, and they will return to their civilian duties.

Thank you to our Louisiana National Army Guardsmen for all of their work over the past two years. We could not have met the demands of our seven parishes without their hard work and dedication to our mission.
